

New Edge Shopping Cart Software – Cartedge

No more a luxury of the elite, eCommerce has finally penetrated into the lifeline of all kinds and sizes of businesses thanks to Cartedge! Cartedge's new edge shopping cart software literally transforms your online business into a highly fluent, stress-free and user-friendly experience. Cartedge new edge software renders wholesome order management services at a never before ease, for a never before price!

Your business prospects take a new height, as you embrace Cartedge. Relaxed and assured of a foolproof series of transactions, you neither miss any order nor skip a suitable and professional email response to your customers.

Cartedge's shopping cart software mingles state-of-the-art technology with economies of scale. Cartedge tends to introduce only tried, tested and perfected codes and installations to its economical packages, as it harnesses acquired expertise and efficiency to good use. Some big-budget solutions now available at packaged rates include real-time user behavior monitoring which lets you spearhead your marketing tactics right on target. Cartedge software facilitates automated promotion/ discount management, full content management of informational pages, B2B subscription management and Vendor fulfillment management. It also enables customer support via live chat, something that was limited to bigwigs strictly till recently.

Cartedge shopping cart software seamlessly integrates your online shopping cart with your website with identical look and feel. It extends you the flexibility to choose between various eye-catching themes to give your shopping cart a bright new ambience from time to time. It also enables you to customize the design of your shopping cart website to suit your own fancies and put your unique imagination to work.

Cartedge software does not leave much to be handled manually, unless it is a matter of customization. The new edge software automatically updates/ maintains information regarding orders, customers and products. The admin panel has been rendered highly intuitive and user-friendly by crisp and comprehensive coding. The shopping cart software incorporates an inbuilt content management system (CMS) in your online shopping cart that excuses you from much headache related to nitty-gritty of time-to-time content updating and customizing. The software also takes care of implementation of regional taxes and shipping charges wherever applicable, at the prevailing rates, much to your relief and pleasure. The coding ensures that Cartedge web pages remain highly search engine friendly with ample of intuitive tagging, mapping and linking, incorporated within web pages.

What's more, Cartedge software incorporates W3C Validated XHTML code, that is, the web pages at Cartedge conform to W3C standards and are interoperable across browsers – be it Netscape or Internet explorer. Consistently and continuously upgrading and improvising, in all, Cartedge shopping cart software truly complies with the Web 2.0 standards!